

CRISIS IS NEAR

Military Experts Agree That If Allies Defeat Germans on French Soil, Kaiser Must Weaken Eastern Army to Support That of the West, and Crumpling of German Lines Will Result.

FRENCH REPULSE ATTACK OF GERMANS AND ADVANCE NEAR SOISSONS---LITTLE CHANGE

Left Wing Widening and Furious Fighting Continues With Germans Massing Forces--- Belgians Taking Care of Selves -- Russians Report Progress and Mammoth Movement of German Troops to Westward in East Prussia -- Censorship Rigid.

By Associated Press.

London, October 6.—Never since its start has the battle of the Aisne, which has now become virtually a siege of the German positions on the Oise, and north of this river, shown such a dearth of news as on this 25th day of the struggle. The British information bureau completely closed down on current events from the front several days ago and it probably will continue until Sir John French, the commander of the British expeditionary force, puts his army in motion again.

The reticence of the Paris official communication last night was even more marked than customary. It furnished no inkling of what had happened after the Germans had forced the French to yield ground at certain points on the all-important western wing. It is argued here that these intermittent variations are inevitable and not necessarily important in such a hard fought combat, throughout which given positions are taken and retaken and taken again many times.

That the allies for the moment possess greater mobility than do their foes, seems to indicate truth, in the news that they have been able to raid the German lines of communication, cut a railroad and destroy a train belonging to the artillery of the German imperial guard. This is a hint borrowed from the Russians, whose flanking methods appear to have contributed greatly to the reported German undoing in the eastern war zone.

As the enormous wastage in horses progresses, it is claimed for the allies that their possibility for such movements will increase while those of their opponents decrease. German cavalrymen on bicycles already are a common sight and the Russian advance, which is cutting Germans off from the horse producing districts of Hungary must, if maintained further, increase this shortage in remounts.

Victory for one side or the other along the Russian frontier is of supreme importance and the tremendous battle impending there may mark the climax of the war. If the Russians win a great victory in the east it will compel the Germans to divert some of their western armies in that direction and the flank movements will become crushing attacks, which will crumple up the depleted German lines. On the other hand, if the Russians are the victims of a severe reverse, some of the veteran German corps will be released for service in the west and the Germans may pierce the numerically inferior allied line. Whichever side can extend its line furthest without weakening its front ought, according to the experts, to win the battle of the Aisne. Hence the crucial importance of the battle on the Russian border.

Paris, October 6.—The following official communication was given out in Paris this afternoon:

"On our left wing, the front is extending more and more widely. Very important masses of German cavalry have been reported in the environs of Lille, coming from forces of the enemy which are making a movement in the region to the north of the line between Pourcoing, seven miles northeast of Lille, and Armentieres, nine miles northwest of Lille. In the vicinity of Arras, and on the right bank of the river Somme, the situation shows little change. Between the Somme and the Oise there have been alternate advances and withdrawals. Near Lassigny the enemy undertook an important attack which, however, failed.

On the right bank of the Aisne, north of Soissons, we have, with the cooperation of the British army, made a slight advance. We have also made some progress in the vicinity of Berry-au-Bac. There is nothing to report from the rest of the front.

In Belgium, the Belgian forces defending Antwerp have occupied strongly the line between the river Rupel and the river Nothe. Against this line the attacks of the Germans have failed."

Petrograd, October 8.—The following official statement was given out today at Russian general headquarters:

"The Russian offensive campaign continues. The fortified positions of the enemy (on the frontier) are under a heavy artillery fire. The enemy has received reinforcements from the garrison at Koenigsberg. There has been particularly desperate fighting in the vicinity of Bakal-argewo. Railroads in East Prussia are crowded with troop trains and our aerial scouts report an uninterrupted movement of Germans in a westerly direction. German columns and German troop trains are withdrawing across the frontier."

VIENNA SAYS PROGRESS MADE

London, October 6.—An official statement, issued today at Vienna, says that the situation in Russian-Poland and Galicia is favorable, according to a Reuter dispatch from the Austrian capital via Amsterdam. The combined German and Austrian armies, it is officially announced, have forced the enemy from Opatow and Klimontow towards the Vistula river. In the Carpathian mountains the Russians have been completely beaten at Uzok Pass.

GERMANS LET UP ANTWERP ATTACK

Bordeaux, France, October 6.—

News described as "most encouraging" has been received here today from Antwerp. It is said that the German attacks on this place seem to be slackening somewhat in intensity. It has been announced here by a credible authority that Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the British Admiralty, is now at Antwerp consulting with the Belgian general staff.

BERLIN SAYS SITUATION IS HOPEFUL

Berlin, via wireless to Sayville, L.

I. October 6.—An order of the day written by General von Hoehn, published officially today, says that Fort Camp Des Romains, on the river Meuse, near St. Mihiel, after a number of hard fights, has been taken by the Germans. Five French officers and more than 500 men were made prisoners. The remainder of the French force perished in the ruins of the casemates. It is officially stated that the Russians were completely defeated near Suwalki and Augustowo, on the east Prussian frontier, October 1 and 2. The Germans made 3000 prisoners and captured 18 cannon and many machine guns. The situation, it is announced, is most hopeful everywhere for the Germans.

BRITISH PROHIBIT WOOL EXPORTATION

London, October 6.—The government has prohibited the exportation of raw wool from England to any other country.

BRITISH SHIP AIDS JAPS

Peking, China, October 6.—A communication received here from a German source in Tsing-Tau, the fortified position in the Kiao-Chow territory, sets forth that in a German sortie, last Friday night, the Germans lost 1 man killed and 3 wounded, while 25 Germans are missing. The British battleship, Triumph, according to the same information, has participated in the bombardment of Tsing-Tau. A German torpedo boat, which was recently engaged with the Japanese, returned to the harbor undamaged. The German gunboat, Jaguar, was slightly damaged.

BRITISH PLACE MAMMOTH ORDER

Jefferson City, Mo., October 6.—A local company closed contracts today with the British government for 165,000 saddle trees. It is said this is the largest contract of the kind ever made in the United States.

PLEASED WITH WORK OF THE GERMAN BOATS

Berlin, via wireless, October 6.—Press matter derived from official German sources, says:

"Surprise generally is expressed at the amazing activity of the German cruisers stationed abroad. Though it was generally expected that the vessels would fall easy victims to British warships within a fortnight after the declaration of war, Germans now are astonished to learn from reports in the British and French press of the damage they are doing to the merchant marine of the enemies. The attempts of the powers composing the triple entente to enforce the opening of the Dardanelles have failed."

DRUGS TO BEAR LIBERAL SHARE OF REVENUE TAX

Proprietary Medicines, Cosmetics, Perfumes, and Chewing Gum Come in For Small Tax---$10 For General Amusement Halls---Finance Committee Finishes Work on War Revenue Bill.

By Associated Press.

Washington, October 6.—Stamp taxes on proprietary medicines, cosmetics, perfumes and chewing gum, such as were included in the Spanish war taxes were voted in the war revenue bill today by the Democrats of the Senate Finance committee just before the measure was turned over to the Democratic Senate caucus for approval or revision.

The amendment would provide for a graduated stamp tax of one-eighth of a cent on articles costing not more than 5 cents to five-eighths of a cent for more than 15 or less than 25 cent articles and five-eighths of a cent for each 25c of value additional.

Articles included in this list are pills, powders, troches, cordials, bitters, tonics, plasters, liniments, salves, ointments, waters, except natural mineral or carbonated natural mineral waters, essences and all similar articles for which a private formula is claimed. Similar rates of taxation would be applied to perfumery, cosmetics, hair oils, pomades, hair dyes, dentrifices, etc. The proposed tax on chewing gum is 4 cents for each box worth $1 or less, and 4 cents additional for each added dollar of value. In perfecting in the measure the committee stipulated that the proposed tax of 50 cents per horse power on automobile sales should apply only to passenger automobiles. Another tax added is on sparkling wines, not otherwise specified in the bill, at the rate to be 1 cent for pints or less, and 2 cents for more than a pint. In the proposed tax of $10 for general amusement halls exception is given "chauntanquas, lectures, lyceums, agricultural or industrial fairs and religious and charitable entertainments."

GRAND JURY WORK IS NEAR AN END

At 3:30 o'clock this afternoon the grand jury had not returned its findings, but the work was expected to be completed later in the evening or Wednesday morning.

The work has been unusually heavy.

JUSTICE WRIGHT RESIGNS

By Associated Press.

Washington, October 6.—Associate Justice Daniel Thew Wright, of the District of Columbia, against whom impeachment charges are pending before the House Judiciary committee, today sent his resignation to President Wilson, to take effect November 15. The charges, filed by a Washington banker, alleged official and personal misconduct. Justice Wright attracted nation-wide attention several years ago by sentencing Samuel Gompers and other labor leaders, to jail, for contempt of court.

BOSTON THIRD BASEMAN'S LEG BREAKS IN SLIDE

By Associated Press.

New York, October 6.—James C. Smith, third baseman of the Boston Nationals, broke his leg above the ankle sliding to second base in ninth inning of the first game with Brooklyn today. He will be unable to play in the world's series.

ANOTHER AMERICAN SHOT

By Associated Press.

Maco, Arizona, October 6.—Private Leroy Bradford, of Troop G, 10th U. S. cavalry, Border Patrol, was struck in the breast today by a bullet fired from the trenches occupied by troops of General Hill, defending the town of Maco, Sonora, from the attacks of Governor Maytorena. Bradford was in a trench dug for the protection of the American troops on the border line. His wound is said to be serious.

Bradford is the second United States soldier to be struck by Mexican bullets since Maytorena and his Villa adherents began their attack, four days ago, on the Mexican town. Private Wilson, of the same troop, was hit Sunday. A boy was hit in the hand by a stray bullet yesterday. Two cavalry horses also have been shot. This loss on the non-combatant side is almost as great as that suffered by the contending Mexican forces.

BATTLE STILL RAGING

General Joffre Declares Result Remains Indecisive.

VON KLUCK'S MEN STAND FIRM

Reinforced With Troops From the German Center They Continue to Make a Determined Stand Against the Allies' Attempt to Outflank Them—French Government Reports No Change Along the Rest of the Line—Germans Claim Victories.

BULLETIN.

Ostend, Oct. 6.—The British steamship Armount was destroyed by a mine. Her crew of thirty-five men were saved. She was laden with grain. The Armount sailed from Norfolk, Va., on Sept. 19.

Paris, Oct. 6.—The Germans have undeniably gained ground in the region of Roye, at the hinge of the allied line. General Joffre admits a reverse.

The allies' line has bent under tremendous pressure, but remains unbroken. North of the Oise, where the battle front forms a right angle, the fighting was violent, but indecisive. General Von Kluck, reinforced with troops from the German center, continues to make a determined stand against the attempt of the allies to outflank him.

The French announced that the battle to the north of the Oise, which commenced seriously about Sept. 25, continues with great violence, with no decisive result, and that at certain points the French troops have been forced to yield ground.

The Germans, in their report issued, say the battle is proceeding successfully for them.

Both in London and in Paris there is the greatest confidence, although some surprise is displayed at the success of the Germans in preventing the outflanking movement. There is a feeling, however, that the German can not extend their line much farther north without weakening it at some point.

General Joffre's purpose, now resumed, points to a drive at Mons and Brussels, while holding fast the main battle line. This contemplates the relief of Antwerp as well as a weakening of the German center necessitated by army corps sent from the center to support Von Kluck.

Along the fortified hills of Champagne the deadlock continues, but in the Argonne and along the Meuse the Germans, summoning fresh resources, are sleepless in their efforts to break the allied right wing and so open an urgently needed east and west line of communications from Metz.

GERMANS CLAIM TWO VICTORIES

Berlin, Oct. 6 (By Wireless to Sayville, L. I.)—An official report from the German army headquarters says that in the siege of Antwerp the forts of Lier, Waelhem and Koenigshoyck and the intermediate redoubts, with thirty guns, have been taken. "Thus a breach has been made in the outer circle of forts," the report adds, "rendering an attack on the inner circle of forts and the town itself possible."

Near Augustow the Third Siberian and parts of the Twenty-second Russian army corps, composing the left wing of the Russian army, on crossing the Niemen river were defeated after a furious battle, lasting two days. More than 2,000 wounded Russians were made prisoners and a large quantity of guns and machine guns were captured.

Rotterdam, Oct. 6.—The Vossiches Zeitung's military expert says: "Both wings of the German army are in a victorious advance and occupy strong positions for a decisive battle. An absolutely comprehensive plan of attacking the enemy by overwhelming pressure is now being executed."

GERMAN ADVANCE

London, Oct. 6.—British troops are assisting in the defense of Antwerp. They are fighting shoulder to shoulder with the Belgians in the trenches along the north bank of the river Nethe.

Poetry For Today

THE CHILD.

Thou, whose exterior semblance doth belie
Thy soul's immensity;
Thou best Philosopher, who yet dost keep
Thy heritage, thou Eye among the blind,
That, deaf and silent, read'st the eternal deep,
Haunted forever by the eternal mind—
Mighty Prophet! Seer blest!
On whom those truths do rest,
Which we are tolling all our lives to find,
In darkness lost, the darkness of the grave;
Thou, over whom thy Immortality
Broods like the Day, a Master o'er a Slave.
A Presence which is not to be put by;
Thou little Child, yet glorious in the might
Of heaven-born freedom on thy being's height,
Why with such earnest pains dost thou provoke
The years to bring the inevitable yoke,
Thus blindly with thy blessedness at strife?
Full soon thy soul shall have her earthly freight,
And custom lie upon thee with a weight,
Heavy as frost, and deep almost as life.

Doughty Berbers.

The ancient Berbers, who still live in the mountain territory of Kabylia, were never conquered by Roman, Goth, Vandal, Arab or Turk. They made their first obeisance before the firemen of the French under the second empire. Through all these milleniums they have lived in their populous villages perched high on the tops of steep hills. Around them in all directions is a zone of trees, with pasture above, beginning at about 3,000 feet, and the oft-conquered open valleys below. Here for unknown ages the Berber has lived among and from his trees. There are four staples of life in Kabylia—dried figs, olives, bread and meat. For miles there is one unending succession of villages set in this open forest of figs and olives—Argonaut.

COUNT VON BERNSTORFF

German Ambassador in Conference With Secretary Bryan.

BINDING NATIONS IN PEACE

Bryan Has Interview With Ambassador Von Bernstorff.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Secretary Bryan is endeavoring to bring Germany, Austria and Japan into the peace treaty fold, since they are the only powers which have not signed one of these agreements with the United States. At Mr. Bryan's request the German ambassador called at the state department and received from Mr. Bryan's hands copies of the treaties recently signed with Great Britain, France, Spain and Russia.

Ambassador Von Bernstorff made no comment following his interview with Mr. Bryan except to say that he had no instructions from his government in regard to the peace treaties.

Secretary Bryan has also sent to Ambassador Dumba of Austria-Hungary copies of the recently signed treaties with expressions of the desire of this government to negotiate such a treaty with his government.

The treaties have not been much discussed with the Japanese government owing to the existence of the unsettled controversy over the California alien land law.

MANY MATTERS DISCUSSED BY COUNCIL LAST NIGHT

Several Problems Postponed Including Action on Washington Avenue and Court Street Paving.

LACK OF FUNDS TIES UP SEWER BUILDING

Sanitary Sewer Proposition Dropped in Hurry—New City Building Looms Up in the Near Future—Council Will View "Improved" Streets—"Why is This Thusly" Explained by Engineer.

All members attended the regular session of the City Council, Monday evening. The number of visitors was smaller than usual.

Following the approval of the minutes of the last previous meeting, Mr. John Sutherland, a resident of Washington avenue, read letters from the officials of various cities, regarding brick and other materials used in paving. He objected to paving Washington avenue with brick. More than a half hour was devoted to informal discussion of street paving and materials used, after which it was voted to leave Washington avenue and Court street improvements until after the Main street job is finished, so that it can be ascertained how the brick paving with asphalt filler fills the paving bill.

Sheets objected to holding up the improvements, pointing out previous delays of months or years.

The Service committee was not ready to report on the paying of one-third of the cost of Main and Temple street improvements, as asked by citizens at the previous meeting.

Howell, as member of the Health committee, said that he favored having the solicitor draw up the necessary resolution calling for a bond issue of $100,000 for the new sewerage system, which has been discussed for several years. After informal discussion of the problem, it was stated that such a resolution had been prepared by the solicitor and the solicitor stated that he could quickly make any necessary changes in the resolution. The discussion was quickly dropped and no action was taken.

An ordinance to improve Circle avenue from Main to North street, was read and passed under suspension of the rules. Some argument was made relative to the time being fixed for completion of a contract, instead of leaving it open indefinitely, as it was reported had been done on the Main street paving job.

Next came the ordinance for improving North street. After it was read the first time, an amendment was added, providing for paving full width from the old corporation line to Gibbs avenue, instead of 16 feet in width. The ordinance was then passed.

Rowe called attention to the need

Ely street, owing to the condition of abutting property beyond that street. Mayor Coffey stated that the county commissioners had informed him that the city's lease of the county jail, was about to expire and that the city was asked to prepare to care for its own prisoners.

Sheets favored the issuance of bonds for $15,000 or $20,000 for erecting a city building on the Market street lot.

It was his plan to have the calaboose in the city building, as well as all of the city offices in the same building.

Others discussed the feasibility of placing a calaboose in the engine house, but about this time a motion was made to adjourn, and this was done without further action.

MANY ATTEND FISH FRY AT BUZZARD'S ROOST

Nearly a hundred Washington people attended the fish fry of the Washington campers at Buzzard's Roost, Sunday, and from all reports it was one of the biggest "feeds" ever pulled off in central Ohio. Hill climbing and nut gathering furnished amusement for the revellers as well as fishing. And speaking of fish, the pretty string of black bass, angled by Gene Holloway, was one of the best catches of the season.

The members of the club who have been enjoying the outing are: Messrs. Orme Brown, Phil Trothrock, Robert Sanderson, Frank Bateman, Henry Sparks, A. E. Henkle, Glenn M. Pine, O. S. Tobin, Gene Holloway, Harold Anderson and Dill Sanderson, the latter from Logan.

MAN WHO CONDUCTED Y. M. C. A. CAMPAIGN DIED RECENTLY

Word Received Here From State Secretary E. H. Lichy Tells of Death of Mr. Erwin K. Smith, of Rockland, Me., Who Engineered the Local Y. M. C. A.'s Successful Crusade for $25,000.

After much argument, it was unanimously voted that Friday, October 16th, council will meet in a body at the Mayor's office at 9 o'clock and "view" the various "improvements" and meet the property owners, ascertain their reason for non-payment of assessments, and then agree upon some compromise price for the "improvement", or place the street in good condition and demand full assessments levied.

Mr. Karney, addressing council, stated that on Ogle street when the improvement was made, the specifications were broken at the beginning of the work, and that this had been done to show favor.

A report of the superintendent of the Washington cemetery was carried over until a joint session is held with the township trustees.

The Commercial bank's bid of par and accrued interest, on the $3200 paving bonds on Temple and Main streets, was accepted. It was the only bid.

A motion was passed to have the Washington avenue paving stop at

It will then require two or three weeks for the paving to become in proper condition for use.

WAYWARD DAYTONIAN IN TOILS AT LAST

W. J. Smith, of Dayton, traveling for a soap house, who was wanted in this city some three or four months ago for deserting his wife and family, has come afoul of the law at last, and must do time in the workhouse.

The man, it will be recalled, had deserted his family, and they came to this city, where the man had been a day or two before. A warrant was issued for his arrest, but he could not be located, although the police searched in adjoining towns, and went to considerable expense.

The woman was later sent back to friends in Dayton, and nothing more was heard of the affair until Tuesday of this week, when the following dispatch from Dayton tells the story.

In Social Circles

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McLean entertained Monday night with a handsome dinner.

Red carnations and greenery were used in decoration and the young daughter of the house, Katharine, assisted in the hospitalities.

Seated with Mr. and Mrs. McLean were Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Howat, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Daugherty, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hagler, Miss Jean Howat.

In compliment to her guests, Mrs. O. G. Getty and Mrs. Clarence Moore of Myersdale, Pa., and Mrs. Guckett, of Granville, O., Mrs. J. M. Willis charmingly entertained three tables of Bridge Monday afternoon.

Smart autumn toilettes vied with autumn flowers in filling the room with rich color, and a delicious refreshment was served.

Engaged in the game were Mesdames P. A. Altland, Eva Penn, M. S. Daugherty, J. M. Baker, Werter Shoop, Alice Moorman, H. T. Wilkin, H. C. Anthoni, D. H. C. Bowen, Ray F. Zaner.

A pleasurable dinner of Sunday was in honor of Mrs. Louis Slack, of Delaware, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Howat at entertaining. Also seated with the honor guest were Mr. and Mrs. Val McCoy, Miss Rose McLean, Miss Jean Howat, Mr. Howard Hagler.

Opening the New Year with distinctive brilliancy and originality, due to the afternoon's hostesses, was the October meeting of the Daughters of the Revolution, held at the home of Miss Rose McLean Monday afternoon.

Entertaining with Miss McLean were Mesdames Allen Hagler, W. A. Harlow, Alex. S. Ballard, Robert Howat, Frank M. Kennedy, John Case of Greenfield, Maude Harlow Coffman, Misses Marie Hagler, Jean Howat.

While the home redolent with fall flowers, was placed at the disposal of the guests, the affair was really an outdoor party. The lovely day, more like June than October, offered irresistible call to the open, and guests were seated comfortably under the shade of the big trees in the lawn for the program.

The incoming regent, Mrs. Emma Brown Morris, presided, and announced a departure from the usual in a play called, "How the Story Grew", which had been loaned from the Delaware society through the kindness of Mrs. Louis Slack, Miss McLean's guest.

The little play, an immensely clever take-off on the way gossip enlarges and spreads, introducing side-splitting complications and absurdities, with hits in connection with the members of the chapter, proved a great success and it is not saying too much to voice the opinion that no

PROGRESSIVE CAMPAIGNERS
TOURING THE COUNTY TODAY

The leading Progressive candidates for state office, with the exception of candidate for governor, Garfield, invaded Fayette county Tuesday morning, making the first stop at Millerville, where the party was met by a delegation of local Progressives.

Hon. Jesse Taylor, Hon. Arthur L. Garfield and Hon. Frank Wood, were the leading speakers, and each made a short speech at Millerville.

When the party finished at Bloomington after one o'clock, part of the speakers and party passed through this city for Good Hope, New Martinsburg and Buena Vista, while other speakers and remainder of the party went to Madison Mills and Waterloo. At each place the voters had assembled to hear the speeches.

Tonight at 7:30 the leading candidates, including Mr. Garfield, will speak at Memorial hall.

Hon. Jess Taylor spoke principally on good roads and the temperance question; Hon. Frank Wood spoke on the proposed amendments, and urged a strong vote for temperance.

Mr. Garfield discussed the Progressive platform, and took occasion to hammer the Republican party, and take sly jabs at the Democrats. Mr. Garfield's throat was not in condition to speak at length, and his speeches were usually not lengthy.

When the party finished at Bloomington after one o'clock, part of the speakers and party passed through this city for Good Hope, New Martinsburg and Buena Vista, while other speakers and remainder of the party went to Madison Mills and Waterloo. At each place the voters had assembled to hear the speeches.

Tonight at 7:30 the leading candidates, including Mr. Garfield, will speak at Memorial hall.

Tomorrow the Republican campaigners enter the county and make each town in the county, winding up with a meeting at Memorial hall in the evening.

"RAZZER" NEARLY SEVERS MAN'S ARM

A gathering of "rollers of the bones" near Roxobel, in upper Ross county, terminated in a free-for-all, Sunday, in which Arthur Walker, colored, was made the goat, and came out of the fray with one arm nearly severed by a razor in the hands of some angry companion.

Harry Bird and Otto Siller were mixed up in the affray, and Siller is said to have used the tonsorial implement. Bird is said to have used his battery of artillery. The lights were shot out of a dwelling house in which Walker had taken refuge. The men were placed in the calaboose at Frankfort.

Mayor Coffey of this city happened along through Frankfort just after the affair had taken place, and saw the injured man, who was very weak from loss of blood.

The trouble occurred a few miles east of the scene of the murder at Greenfield about the same time Sunday.

VILLA TO TAKE FIELD AT ONCE

Sudden Turn in Mexican Situation Believed to Have Knocked All Peace Negotiations Sky High—General Maytorena's Forces in Long Distance Battle at Naco, Sonora, With General Hill's Men.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 6.—Following the defection of Maclovio Herrera at Parral with 5,000 men, General Villa suffered the loss of General Manuel Chao and his command, according to advices received here. General Chao with his command went over to the Carranza side.

Chao, who was the Carranza governor of Chihuahua and was deposed some time ago in favor of Fidel Avila, was sent by Villa to Parral with orders if possible to capture Herrera, who deserted to Carranza, and in any event to garrison the town. Chao went to Parral, but kept on going after he arrived there, his intention being to join Herrera, who it is reported will join the Arrieta brothers in Sinaloa.

The three former Villa leaders control more than 10,000 well equipped men. They have ample supplies of ammunition, having been recently outfitted by Villa.

This sudden turn in the situation, together with the action of Carranza's generals at Mexico City in refusing to accept the resignation of the "supreme chief" is said here to have knocked all peace negotiations galley west and made it necessary for Villa to take the field at once.

Fighting at long distance has been continuous between the Carranzista forces holding Naco, Sonora, and the

ACCUSER APPEARS

Claims Money Used In Campaign In Penrose's Interest.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Representative Palmer, Democratic candidate for senator from Pennsylvania, appeared before the senate committee on privileges and elections and charged the use of money in the campaign in the interest of Senator Penrose. An investigation may be ordered into the expenditures of the Pennsylvania primary under the Norris resolution. The Republican members of the committee will insist that Roger Sullivan's campaign also be investigated if the probe of Penrose is ordered.

The charge was made by Palmer that a fund of $150,000 had been raised in Pittsburgh alone by assessments upon manufacturers imposed by the organization known as the "Pennsylvania Protective Union," to be used to aid the nomination and election of Penrose. He charged also that the retail liquor dealers' association had sent out letters to saloonists throughout the state urging support of Penrose.

CONGRESS MAY QUIT SATURDAY

Washington, Oct. 6.—President Wilson told a visitor that he hoped congress would complete its labors in time to adjourn Saturday night. It remains for congress to approve the conference report on the Clayton bill and pass the war revenue bill before adjournment.

The president said it was by no means certain that congress would be called in extraordinary session in November. He said that matter was to be decided on after further conferences with the Democratic leaders in congress.

It developed that the Rayburn bill, providing for government regulation of railroad security issues, has been postponed indefinitely by the Democratic leaders. It was learned that the president does not plan that this measure shall be passed even at the short session of congress beginning in December.

Lesser Evil.

The man from Glasgow had suffered grievously in crossing the channel, and when he next had occasion to repeat the journey he did not intend that there should be so much acute physical discomfort attached to it. So he marched into a chemist's shop.

"Certainly, sir; we have the very thing," said the obliging druggist.

"How much is it?"

"Half a crown, sir." The Glasgow man staggered back a pace, visibly shaken. "Losh," he gasped when he recovered himself. "I would sooner be seasick."—London Mirror.

RECORD BREAKING PRICES
AT STEWART SWINE SALE

Average Price of $54 For 33 Head of Choice Gilts Disposed of by Widely Known Fayette County Swine Breeder—Western Buyers Eager For Best, But Buckeye Farmers Get Busy and Keep Many Choice Animals in Ohio.

Spring Hill farm, noted widely as the home of one of the foremost hog breeders of the country, Mr. H. K. Stewart, and which has been visited by prominent hog judges from all over the United States to see Col. S. Jr., the great breeding sire for which Mr. Stewart refused $1600, was the scene of Mr. Stewart's annual fall sale Monday.

It was the first time these sales have ever been held at Spring Hill farm, but so many breeders were desirous of visiting it that the opportunity was given them.

Successful as have been all of Mr. Stewart's sales, the one of Monday was pre-eminently the greatest sale of immunized duros that he has ever conducted. One of the big buyers in attendance said it was the best sale he had attended in Ohio this fall.

There was the best crowd of foreign breeders ever in attendance, including several in the millionaire class, and leading hog breeders of the county fully represented.

The estimate placed on the crowd was 350.

The big field across from the home was filled with autos and vehicles until it looked like a county fair and the perfect October day and attractive surroundings made it in every way a distinctive sale.

But the big factor was the high prices brought by the duros—prices that were higher than ever before and astonished even old experienced hog men.

The first three yearlings were sold with breeding privileges to Col. S. Jr., and sold for $448, an average of $149.33 per head.

The entire offering, 33 gilts averaged $54.00 a head. The entire offering of 46 head averaged $48, the average cut down by spring boars.

The hogs were sold to widely scattered buyers, going to Tennessee, Kentucky and Indiana and all over Ohio.

Mr. Stewart's great sale registered the fact that farmers are giving more attention and effort to higher class hog breeding than ever before, and looked good for the increased price of pork.

It also proved that other states seek Ohio to secure the finest offerings of the hog world and that Ohio farmers have wakened to that fact and are in the race, and keeping many of these hogs at home.

A feature of the day greatly enjoyed by the visiting buyers was the elaborate lunch served by Mrs. Stewart and sister, Miss Martin, in the big basement of the handsome home.

The sale was cried by three expert auctioneers, Col. H. L. Iggleheart, of Elizabethtown, Ky.; Col. W. H. Irwin, of Harrod, and Col. M. Eckle, of Fayette Co.

ESSAD PASHA'S REVOLT IN ALBANIA MAY CAUSE ITALY TO TAKE SIDES IN THE WAR.

Reports from Albania indicate that this troublesome little country is still important in the present war. Prince Burhan-Eddin, a son of the deposed sultan of Turkey, was recently chosen by the Albanian senate as Prince of Albany, and a commission was named to go to Constantinople and ask him to accept the throne. Essad Pasha, who has started several revolts in Albania, is disatisfied with this arrangement, and he is expected to lead a revolt that will probably cause Italy to take sides against Austria in the present war.

NEW WAR COST ESTIMATE.

Six Nations' Daily Expense $38,000,000, Says German Expert.

Fourteen thousand million dollars is the yearly cost of the war (or $38,000,000 per day) to Germany, Austria, Belgium, France, Russia and England, according to the German statistical expert, Captain Max Henke.

Of this expense France and Germany, he estimates, each with 3,000,000 men in the field, must stand $2,800,000,000 each, while Russia's share, with her 4,000,000 fighting men, will be $3,000,000.

These figures would seem exaggerated if the actual cost of England's Boer war (in which not more than 100,000 British troops were actually engaged at one time) was not known to have cost $1,200,000,000 in less than three years, or $450,000,000 a year.

KILL! KILL! KILL!
EPITOMIZES WAR

First Hand Accounts Show Awfulness of Battle.

DAYS THAT DEFY IMAGINATION

Sights in Nations' Terrible Conflict Which Make the Blood Run Cold. "I Should Never Have Thought Men Could Stand It," Says One Soldier in Letter From the Front.

The horrors of war are brought home strikingly to the reader of the newspapers in these days of stress abroad by means of many a personal narrative as thrilling as any ever told by a master of fiction. These little stories recite deeds of dauntless courage and impress one with the correctness of General Sherman's famous definition of war.

"The statements of the wounded at Paris returning from the Aisne show the terrible nature of the fighting. All practically tell the same story," said one man.

"It began with heavy and accurate fire. There was a lunch interval. It stopped about 5:30 every day, and then in the night often came the charges. One night I couldn't count them. It was awful! Kill! Kill! Kill!

And still they came, shouting each other over on to us.

"There was no man but had his story of comrades shot on either side of him, of how they were smashed day after day, of the shriek of shells, of the perpetual groaning of the wounded as they lay in the wet trenches—seven days and nights of it and sometimes only an hour's sleep."

"Muddled to the eyes, wet, often blood caked, many were suffering from the curious aphasia produced by the continuous and terrible concussion of shells bursting. Some were dazed and speechless, some deafened, and yet, splendid to relate, I saw on no face the terrible animal war look."

"It Was Horrible; It Was Ghastly."

The following epistle is from a German soldier of the Seventy-fourth Infantry regiment, Tenth corps, to his wife:

"I have just been living through days that defy imagination. I should never have thought men could stand it. Not a second has passed but my life has been in danger.

"It was horrible. It was ghastly. But I have been saved for you and for our happiness, and I take heart again, although I am still terribly unnerved. God grant that I may see you again soon and that this horror may soon be over.

"None of us can do any more. Human strength is at an end."

The correspondent of the London Daily Telegraph at Rheims sends this interesting paragraph:

"In the doorway still stands the crippled beggar who has sought alms there for many years. He maintained his post throughout the bombardment, and like a statue, he stands, covered with dust, pebbles and glass. The man was unharmed. He was crippled in the war of 1870."

Spellbound at Hero's Act.

The heroic self-sacrifice of a soldier named Tresignies of the Second regiment, chasseurs a pied, has just been related. The Belgians were exceedingly anxious to get across the Willebroek canal at Pont Brule, but a bridge was raised against them on the other side and occupied by a strong force of Germans. Tresignies volunteered to swim across and try to lower the bridge. It meant certain death.

Before he plunged in he wrote with a pencil on a scrap of paper the name and address of his wife and the simple words, "God will help and comfort you." The Germans were startled into admiration as he leaped into the stream and for a few moments held their fire; but, seeing what he was about to accomplish, they riddled him with bullets just as he lowered the bridge.

As it fell into place with a crash the Belgians rushed across with shouts of triumph. Tresignies' body was buried with military honors.

A big London department store announced recently that any unmarried male employee between twenty and thirty-five who did not enlist would be dismissed after Sept. 12.

Some of the elevator attendants now are girls. They wear blue uniforms of a material not unlike that of overalls and seem to operate the cars quite as efficiently as the men.

Power of the Modern Big Gun.

Some idea of the power of a modern gun may be formed when it is stated that when an eighty-one-ton gun fires a shot twelve miles it is fired at such an angle that the shell goes up to a height of 5,428 feet higher than Mont Blanc. A 100-ton projectile strikes with a force equal to 465,000 155 pound men jumping from a height of one foot.
